Subject: Greetings from Yorkshire

Hi Sandy,

I'm sending this e-mail from my new smartphone! We're visiting Harewood House in Yorkshire, England. David Lascelles lives here with his family. He's the grandson of Princess Mary – the daughter of King George V and Queen Mary. There are 181 rooms in the enormous house and the public can see 24 amazing living rooms, bedrooms, halls and kitchens. Many tourists are visiting today and people are working here, too. They're watering the plants in the garden and cooking food for visitors at the three restaurants.

The famous Bird Garden at Harewood House has got about 90 different types of exotic birds. Some of the birds are endangered and there are special projects to protect them. Every day at 2 o'clock, a man feeds the penguins. At the moment, we're waiting to see that.

See you soon,
Jill
