Last summer, Ana travelled to London with her cousin Marta. They were very excited because it was their first time in the United Kingdom. They stayed in a small hotel near Hyde Park for one week. Every morning, they had breakfast at the hotel and then went out to visit the city.

Ana and Marta visited many famous places. They saw Big Ben, the London Eye, and the Tower of London. They also went shopping in Oxford Street and bought souvenirs for their families. One afternoon, they took a guided tour of Buckingham Palace. Many beautiful paintings and old furniture were shown to the visitors during the tour. Ana took many photos to remember the experience.

Although the days were sometimes rainy, Ana and Marta enjoyed their trip a lot. They used the underground every day, and sometimes they got a little lost, but they always laughed and found their way back. Ana said: "If I had more money, I would travel to London again and stay longer."

For Ana, the trip was unforgettable. She learned many things about English culture, practised her English with tourists and shop assistants, and created wonderful memories with her cousin.
